THE BRAND

In a world where people stare at screens across tables, Marquee Bourbon Whiskey brings the room back to life. Not with heritage, history lessons, or tasting notes — but with color, character and conversation.

Every bottle features colorful art that sparks a story and gives people a reason to talk. Marquee turns small batch bourbon into a social event in a bottle.

HOW BATCH #1 WAS CHOSEN

The barrels for Marquee are not blended by people at the company. Each batch is carefully selected by others — tastemakers, bourbon judges, chefs, whiskey experts and friends.

They nose. They taste. They compare. They go back and taste again. Opinions are offered. Minds change. Favorites emerge. When the debates are settled, those bourbons come together to create the next small batch of Marquee Exclusive Bourbon Whiskey.
